

E-Learning Platform moodle.fhgr.ch

– Quick guide for students –

Moodle is the main e-learning platform at the FH Graubünden. Your teachers will upload all your essential course materials on this website. You'll also have access to interactive and collaborative tools like wikis, forums and chats to communicate with your teachers and other students.

To use Moodle you'll need an Internet connection, a recent web browser (Mozilla Firefox, Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Apple Safari ...) and your FH Graubünden account details (user name and password).

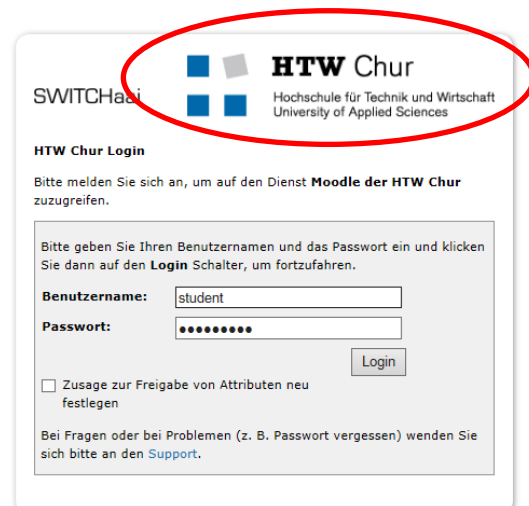

You can access Moodle from anywhere in the world by entering <http://moodle.fhgr.ch> into your browser's address bar.

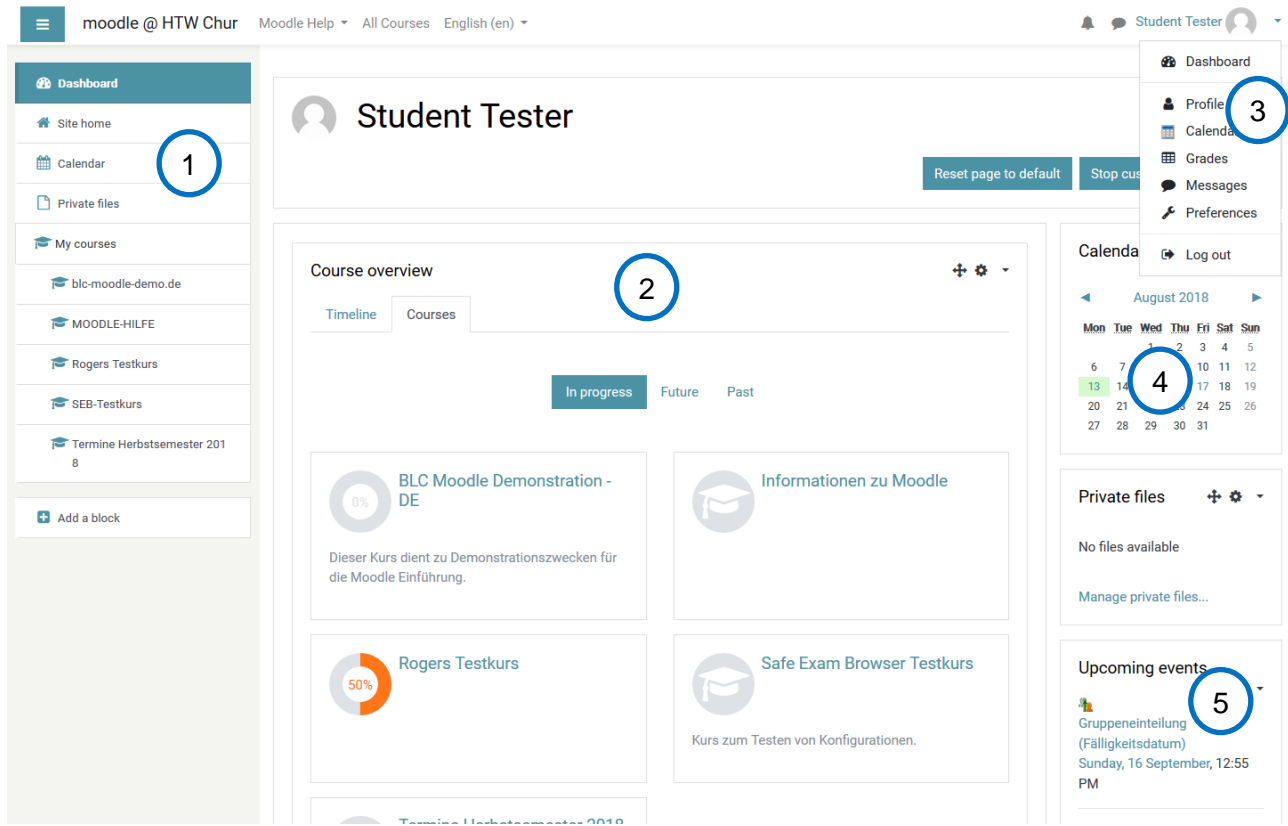

You can switch to the English version of Moodle by selecting „English (en)“ from the drop-down menu in the top bar.

Access and Login

<https://moodle.fhgr.ch>

You'll need your personal FH Graubünden account details (user name and password) to login into Moodle. It is not possible to create an account by yourself. You should have received your FH Graubünden account sheet on your first day at our school. The login procedure is handled by the central SWITCHaaI-protocol. To login via SWITCHaaI, you have to choose your home organisation „FH Graubünden“ and just click the Login button. On the following screen you'll be asked to enter your user name and password.

- 5 Upcoming Events: Here you can find your next upcoming events of your calendar.

Enrol in Courses

You will be automatically enrolled in most of your courses at the beginning of the semester. No further action is necessary in those cases; you will find all your enrolled courses on your personal Moodle Page <https://moodle.fhgr.ch/my>, that are available over the tabs “In Progress”, “Future” and “Past” courses. There may be some courses which require you to enrol yourself.

Self-enrolment in three steps:

1. Look up your course at the site home
Access the Moodle start page (<https://moodle.fhgr.ch>) and browse to your faculty / study major / semester to find your course.

If a course is available for self-enrolment you'll see this icon  right beside the course title.

2. Select the course title and click on the  button.
 - a. You may have to enter a passphrase (provided by your teacher) in some cases.
3. All done. You will receive an automatic confirmation via e-mail.

If you cannot find a required course or self-enrolment is not available: contact your faculty administrator (you will find your faculty administrator at <https://moodle.fhgr.ch/help>)

Course Tools

File download

Your teachers provide various course materials in your courses on Moodle; you can easily download those documents by clicking on the document titles. Some files might be organized in folders.

Collaborative tools

Wikis, chats and forums allow you to contribute content to Moodle courses and communicate with other students and teachers. It is also possible to upload and attach files to forum postings. These tools will not be available in all courses.

Some courses will also offer dedicated areas to upload your homework or other course work. These areas are usually indicated by this icon:  Clicking on this icon will lead you to a special form where you can upload and submit your documents during a limited time window.
